Help Spread the Word:
MCC Toronto's LGBTQ+ Ukrainian Refugee
Response Program

This week, MCC Toronto was proud to speak to a number of media around our LGBTQ+ Ukrainians Support Program. Dave Kerr, Director of our LGBTQ+ Refugee Programs, had an opportunity to speak with Radio Canada and CBC Toronto News at 6 about our efforts to support LGBTQ+ Ukrainians. And Rev. Jeff (above) delivered an important message across all our social media channels.

Please consider getting involved! Visit the link below to learn how you can help:

- Form or join a Sponsorship team of 5 to help displaced LGBTQ+ Ukrainian Refugees
- Volunteer your time to help LGBTQ+ Ukrainians settle in Canada
- Make a gift in support of our LGBTQ+ Refugee Programs

Masking - Important Update

As the government's recent lifting of mask mandates in public spaces left organizations with the option to continue them, we hope our MCC Toronto faithful will understand that we have made the decision to continue the masking requirement at our in-person Worship Services – at least for now.

We feel that maintaining the masking protocols will ensure that the more vulnerable members of our MCC Toronto family feel safer so that they too can be part of our in-person Worship Family.

We hope and pray that this will be a time limited extension. We appreciate your understanding.

If you have any concerns please contact office@mcctoronto.com.

Volunteer with us!

Volunteers have always been at the heart of MCC Toronto.
